

Elizabeth & Mia
BEGIN

The girls are using magic and casting a spell to make their new soup.

Mia & Elizabeth: Fluffly, Bubbly. Gruggly, Moop. Into the bowl is delicious soup!

Soup appears in bowl.

Elizabeth: Come try this new soup in town! It was ranked number one by the famous food critic, Le ParaGeusia.

Mia: And...believe it or not. It's made out of frogs, slugs, and animal brains. Sounds gross, but we guarantee it's delicious.

They introduce the soup to their audience.

Mia: Take a closer look. Can you see any brains, slugs or frogs?

Elizabeth: No, I can't. It's like they miraculously disappeared into a delicious tasting soup. Mia: It's healthy. It's full of vitamins and minerals to keep your body fit.

The phone rings. It is the FDA. They express the regulations being broken. Elizabeth picks up the phone.

Elizabeth: Hello? Oh...Hi. Really? But we...we...Okay. I understand. Goodbye! Mia: What's wrong? Who was on the phone?

Elizabeth: That was the FDA. They said it is illegal to sell amphibians and that we need to close our business. Mia: What??? We worked so hard and now, just like that, we're done? No! I won't accept this!

Elizabeth: They said if we don't, we will get a huge fine and prison time.

The girls decide to move to Mars where the laws are different.

Mia: Oh no! What are we gonna do? If we can't sell soup, we won't have money to survive, and we will become homeless people!

Elizabeth: I have an idea. Please keep an open mind. We could...never mind, it's too crazy... Mia: This is the perfect time for crazy! What's your idea?

Elizabeth: Okay then...Let's move to Mars!

Mia: Sure, let's go to Ma...wait...what? Did you say Mars? Elizabeth: I did! I can get us there fast and cheap.

Mia: Okay, I've got nothing to lose. Let's go!

Elizabeth & Mia: Tinkle, tinkle, zars and Fars. Take us to the planet Mars.

The girls travel to Mars, sell soup and sales are great. They receive record breaking sales in the soup.

Mia: Wow! Mars is great! The Martians love our soup and there is nobody to control our recipe.

Elizabeth: Did you see the paper today? The headline reads "Record Breaking Sales of the FBG Soup from Earth". Mia: We made it! We made it, finally!

Elizabeth: Yes we did. We have accomplished our dreams.

Elizabeth & Mia: Our soup is the most popular in the galaxy! Yay!!!!!!!

Have a nice day
